

CITY PLACE

CODE OF CONDUCT

Welcome to City Place

Please note that the property, its buildings, designated roadways and parking lots that comprise City Place are private property.

The following Code of Conduct has been established to protect the interests of the residents and legitimate businesses of City Place and to ensure each of them together with their guests and invitees enjoy the best experience possible.

The following activities are PROHIBITED:

- The use of obscene language or gestures
- Harassment or intimidation based on an individual's race, sex, or religion
- Behavior that is disorderly, disruptive or that endangers others
- Defacing, damaging or destroying any property
- Running, skating, skateboarding, bicycling and all other forms of "horseplay", loitering, obstructing or interfering with the free flow of pedestrian traffic
- Use of any property in an improper or unsafe manner
- All visitors must be fully clothed and cannot wear indecent, inappropriate or gang-related attire - all subject to Management's discretion
- Loud behavior, the playing of musical instruments or audio devices, loitering and the blocking of residential entrances, store entrances, walkways, fire exits and travel lanes
- Possession of a weapon, even those that are legally owned, are not permitted except by law enforcement officers
- Groups of five (5) or more will be dispersed
- Picketing, leafleting, soliciting and/or petitioning require prior written consent of Management
- Photographing, videotaping and or filming require prior written consent of Management
- School Truancy policies will be strictly enforced
- Conduct which violates any Federal, State or Local Statute or law including motor Vehicle Laws and Edgewater Borough Ordinances are strictly prohibited
- No vehicle shall impede the flow of traffic

Your entry into City Place and its common areas and stores constitutes your consent to abide by the above rules governing conduct.
Any person who violates these rules may be banned from the property or subject to arrest.
This list is not all inclusive and Management reserves the right to revise or modify these rules as necessary.

